

DESIGN THINKING FOR GC'S

Facilitated by: Gillian Scott, Jennifer Thompson, Osler

Design Thinking methodology can help those in GC or other legal department leadership roles to vastly improve how legal services are delivered. Osler's Design Thinking Workshop for Legal Leaders is designed to equip participants with the tools to both re-envision and improve the ways in which they work in order to contribute to stronger business outcomes. The session will explore the fundamentals of Design Thinking and collaboration to solve common work challenges within the context of a modern legal department. Facilitated by design-thinking experts, the Osler Design Thinking Workshop will help participants become better strategic partners to their business.
